TREIGNAC

Eau Minérale Naturelle
Source Artésienne de Corrèze

In a world where purity and authenticity are rare, Treignac Water reveals its quiet distinction.

Drawn from a protected artesian spring in the preserved lands of Corrèze, it offers remarkable clarity and a delicately refined taste.

A discreet signature for Gastronomy and Luxury hospitality to offer a unique memorable experience.

A UNIQUE TASTE THAT UNVEILS FLAVORS

A Refined Sensory Experience

Treignac Water is also a gourmet's secret ally Thanks to its low salinity and slightly acidic pH, it prepares the palate to reveal the subtle aromas of the most refined dishes and fine wines. Its delicate taste, reminiscent of freshly melted snow, offers a long, satisfying finish and perfectly complements high-end culinary experiences.

A LEGACY OF THERAPEUTIC BENEFITS

A Heritage Dating Back to the Middle Ages

Since the 7th century, Treignac has been renowned for the therapeutic benefits of its water, particularly for skin and eye conditions. From the 11th century onward, pilgrims en route to Santiago de Compostela have sought its curative virtues. Today, this tradition continues, making Treignac Water a symbol of well-being and health, appreciated by everyone from infants to the elderly and even athletes.

AN EXCEPTIONAL WATER THAT CARES FOR YOU

Natural Purity and Protection

The artesian spring of Treignac emerges by gravity from within a highly protected forested area, keeping it safe from any chemical pollutants (pesticides, heavy metals, medications, persistent pollutants) and bacterial contamination. Thanks to the unique geological characteristics of its underground formation, this water is the least mineralized in France, with only 22 mg/L of total dissolved solids, endowing it with remarkable biological properties for health.

A COMPOSITION OF EXCELLENCE: THE ELIXIR OF YOUTH

Unmatched Properties

Treignac Water is characterized by its very low mineral content and a high proportion of assimilable silica. These features make it a true source of life, thanks to its multiple benefits:

- Draining and Detoxifying: Helps eliminate heavy metals.

- Protective and Hydrating: Contributes to the structure of the skin and arteries.

- Suitable for Everyone: Recommended for infants, the elderly, and athletes.

By incorporating this exceptional water into your offerings, you provide your customers with a beverage that is both healthy and rejuvenating.
